Foot note

We understand that it is difficult to judge the number of guests that will attend a wake, we do require a minimum number for catering purposes. This is the number of people that we will cater for and the amount that you will be charged for. Should the catering numbers increase on the day, we are able to provide addition food at a cost, however only hot food will be supplied and items served may not match your previously selected items due to availability on the day. Sandwiches and cakes/slices will not be available as extras on the day as they are made fresh to order in accordance with the catering numbers supplied
